

Mad Lib

KIDS CORNER

One player asks the other players, in turn, to contribute a word for the specified type for each blank, but doesn't reveal the context for that word!
Finally, read the completed story aloud. The result is usually really funny!

Once there was a brother and a sister named _____ & _____, first name first name they lived in a quiet neighborhood in _____. Every day they would location set off to _____ and wonder about the _____ _____ that lived _____ noun adjective noun number houses down. One Friday morning they decided to go _____ him. verb
They _____ the bell and no one came to the door. They were about to past tense verb _____ when they heard the _____ of the door _____. What do you verb adjective verb ending in ing want? Asked the _____ man. We are here to see how you are doing, and how adjective you're feeling. Go away, no one asked you to come, I want to be by myself he answered. The two children _____ home to tell their mother what happened. Ma, we verb
went to visit the _____ man down the road and he wouldn't even speak to us. Do adjective
not worry children, _____ is a nice person but he went through some name of a person _____ times in his life. Let's convince him to come for the Shobbos _____ tonight. adjective event
The children _____ back to _____ house and when he opened the door verb name of a person they didn't give him the chance to talk they just _____ into the house and told him.
adjective
_____ we know that you went through _____ times, please come name of a person adjective and spend shobbos with us, we would love to have you. _____ had name of a person
tears in his eyes and without a word he took their hands and _____ back _____ adjective location with them. When _____ opened the door she could not believe name of a person
her eyes she welcomed _____ and gave a big hug to _____ & name of a person first name _____. You have done a great Mitzva she told them, the mitzva of Hachnosas first name Orchim. They all had a wonderful shobbos together and since then _____ name of a person
comes to their home every week and always has a big _____ on his face.
adjective